Fire District Policy and Procedure

Policy Name: Use of Vehicles policy

Date Issued: February 14, 2017

Date Effective: February 14, 2017

Revised: January 2020 – format only

Review Date: January 2020

No personal use of vehicles.

Parades – family members and others that are not members of the fire department must provide their own transportation to the parade route. At the parade route, family members and others that are not members of the fire department may ride in the vehicles during the parade. They must be seated at all times. When the parade is done, they must exit the vehicle and provide their own return transportation.

173 or frontline pumper can be used for parades and funerals in Wilmington, Jay, Upper Jay and Au Sable Forks. Use of vehicles in outlying districts need approval from the chief.
